Singaporeans and Aussies in Action

In spite of Thailand's political unrest, brothers and sisters from Singapore's Life City Church and Australia's Full Gospel Assembly Market Place took the message of Jesus to the people in northern Thailand. They preached, taught and ministered in Public Schools, Care Corner Orphanage, Tribal Villages, Buddhist Temples and to the Neighbors of CCO. The teams comprises of young (6 yrs old) and old (60 yrs and above).

he magnificent 4 from an International school in Hong Kong came with a clear focus on what they planned to do at CCO. Work! Work! Work! ...and make sure it is not the “sissy” type. When they first arrived at CCO, one of them asked, “when are we starting work?” They stayed for a week and spent 25 hours of hard muscled labor work as part of their school assignment in overseas community project.

As the saying goes, “all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.” The boys wrapped up their last two days with Go Carting, Elephant Riding, Bamboo River Rafting & lots of shopping. However, they testified that the most memorable part of the trip was their interaction time with the orphans. They were surprised that the children were so happy.
